LB 103, 108, 302

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator Wesely. The Clerk will read in some reports.

CLERK: Mr. President, your committee on Revenue whose Chairman is Senator Carsten to whom we referred LB 103 instructs me to report the same back to the Legislature with the recommendation it be advanced to General File with amendments; LB 302 advanced to General File with amendments. Signed Senator Carsten, Chairman.

Mr. President, I have a Committee on Committees report reporting favorably upon certain gubernatorial appointments. That will properly lay over. (See page 538, Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: We are ready then for General File, LB 108. The Chair recognizes Speaker Marvel.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Out of courtesy to Senator Newell who has some amendments, I think we ought to lay this over until he gets here. He is on his way. So if there is no objection, I would ask that we pass over the bill temporarily until Senator Newell arrives.

PRESIDENT: Here he is. Do you want to take it up now? Do you want to take it up now, Speaker Marvel?

SENATOR NEWELL: Do I have a motion on the desk? Could you read the motion, then I will explain it.

PRESIDENT: Motion on the desk?

CLERK: Do you want me to reread your amendment, Senator?

SENATOR NEWELL: No, don't I have a motion up there.

CLERK: Well, I have a note from you. Is that what you want me to read?

SENATOR NEWELL: Yes, the note.

CLERK: Senator Newell wishes to withdraw his amendments to LB 108 to allow pending kill motion to precede his motion.

SENATOR NEWELL: Yes, just briefly, if the kill motion is successful, I won't need to have this amendment and I figure we'd expedite it by trying to kill it first. If that fails, then we will have to amend it to try to lessen the precedence. Yes, it is. Not only is it practical but it ought to make
